Rhône guru John Livingstone-Learmonth raves about our 2007 Rhônes in this month's Decanter magazine, with 3 of our wines scoring the maximum  5 stars.

2007 Gigondas, Domaine La Roubine

"Sweet, supple, full bouquet. Spiced black fruits with a winning freshness on the palate. Long, clear and really persistent. A wine of lovely abundance"  5 Stars 19/20

All this for a mere: £120ib per case

Also from this exciting and progressive domaine:

2007 Sablet, Côtes-du-Rhône Villages, Domaine La Roubine

£68ib per case

This wine has just been selected for the new edition of sommelier/writer Matt Skinner's The Juice 2010, his best 100 wines of the year.

2007 Vacqueyras, Domaine La Roubine

£104ib per case

Another of our Gigondas' to rack up the maximum  5 stars was one of the single vineyard wines from established superstar Château Saint Cosme. Sadly, there are only tiny quantities available, along with their other single vineyard wine, 'Valbelle' (see full offer for details).

2007 Gigondas 'Saint Claux', Château Saint Cosme

£145ib per 6

94-96 points from Parker merely rubber stamps JLL's view that this is a stunner.

Also winning  5 stars and 19/20 points was this gorgeous Châteauneuf-du-Pape, which was only surpassed by the legendary Châteauneufs of Château Rayas and Hommage a Jacques Perrin, both of which are 3 or 4 times as expensive.

2007 Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Cuvée Chante Le Merle, Dom.Bosquet des Papes £250ib per case

Having already notched 92-95 points from Robert Parker, this is one of the vintage's best performing CNPapes yet still one of the cheapest.
